The Daily Courant.

Thursday, May 2. 1723.

THE following Address of the Governour in Chief and Lieutenant General of His Majesty's Leeward Caribbee Islands in America, and of the Lieutenant-Governour, Council, and Assembly of the Island of Antigua, has been presented to His Majesty by George Thomas, Esqr of that Island, who was introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Carteret one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Governour in Chief, and Lieutenant General of His Majesty's Leeward Caribbee Islands in America, and of the Lieutenant Governour, Council, and Assembly of your Majesty's Island of Antigua.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, joyn in the general Acclamation of Joy with all your Majesty's faithful Subjects, upon the timely Discovery of the wicked Conspiracy intended against your Sacred Person and Government.

The Blessings of your Majesty's peaceful Reign, and your tender Concern for the publick Good, are undeniable Reasons for every considerate Man to be a good Subject, and are Engagements enough to curb the restless Spirit even of the most bigotted of the Romish Communion. Notwithstanding all these Obligations, we behold with Amazement some of our Fellow-Subjects in full Possession of their Religion and Liberty, ready to take up Arms against the Great Defender of both.

We look on such Parricides with Horrour and Detestation, and glow with Desire of approving ourselves your Majesty's loyal Subjects, by hazarding in your Defence (if Occasion require) our Lives and Fortunes.

May that Almighty Providence which visibly directs your Councils, guard your Sacred Person, and confound the Devices of your implacable Enemies, and may He ever establish on the British Throne, a endless Race of good and pious Kings out of the illustrious Line of Hanover, that may transmit your Royal Vertues, and be the Guardians of our Holy Religion and Liberties to latest Posterity.

We are with great Sincerity,
Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Petersburg, April 2. Admiral Gruys is made Commander of the Czar's Fleet, but not the least Mention has been made for some time past of Admiral Wilster. It is reported that Prince Menzikoff, notwithstanding the late Accounts of his being re-instated in the Czar's good Graces, will be obliged, after all, to take a Journey into Siberia; but when he is to return, is not said. The Czar has caused an Edict to be published here, requiring that all his Demesnes, which for some time past have been under the Administration of his Ministers, shall be let out to Farm, henceforwards, to the highest Bidder: This may probably turn to the Czar's Profit; but on the other Hand, his Ministers Revenue will be much diminished, and they obliged to content themselves with their ordinary Salaries, which are very inconsiderable. It is generally discoursed, that a Lottery will be made to raise a Fund sufficient to defray the Establishment of an Academy for Arts and Sciences which the Czar designs to erect here.

Copenhagen, April 24. The States General's Envoy M. Goes, having taken extraordinary Pains to compose the Differences which happened lately between this Court and the United Provinces, concerning Arrears unpaid to the Danish Troops, had the Satisfaction to effect Part of his Negociation on the 17th Instant, an Account of which he immediately sent away by an Express to their High-Mightinesses; and it is hoped now that the Ships of Holland will be soon seen passing the Sound. Major General Coyet, has received a Copy of his Indictment from the Attorney General, and has demanded eight Days Time to give in his Answer; that time is granted to him, but with this Declaration, That it is to be the utmost he is to expect, and being once elapsed, he is to be heard no more, but must attend his Sentence. 'Tis said he is extreamly inquiet, and shews his Fear by daily enquiring whether the Scaffold that was erected for the Execution of Paul Juel be yet standing? Nevertheless, 'tis insinuated in several Letters from Sweden, that in Regard to his many Friends and considerable Family, the King of Sweden and Senate will probably intercede for him, at least so far, that instead of immediate Execution he may be kept in Prison during his Life.

Brussels, May 1. Some Days ago, an Inhabitant of this Country made, in Presence of the Marquess de Prié, the Marechal Vheler, and the Count de Wrangle, General of the Artillery and Governour of this City, and several other Persons of Distinction, an Experiment of a new Sort of Gunpowder invented by himself, and of such a Nature, that a Person may hold a Barril of it under his Arm and set Fire to it, without either its [illegible] up, or doing any more Harm than happens by lighting a Flambeaux: by Means of this Powder the Magazines may be fill'd without [illegible] fatal Risks, of which so many sad Instances have frequently happened, and particularly that which befell one at Buda. The Author can impart to give to a little Quantity of this new invented Gunpowder the same Force so as to produce the same Effect of a like Quantity of the best and strongest Gunpowder, and can do the like upon a Day's Preparation to the Quantity of 1000 Quintals of his weak Powder. It is said that the Experiment succeeded to the Satisfaction of the Assembly, and the Inventor is to have a Patent to be sole Furnisher of the Magazines, and is also to be recompenced for imparting his Secret, for the Reason that in case of any Accident to himself his Art may not die with him, or his Materials become useless.
